DEFENSE. DMRS not measured in this phase. No defensive operations observed across 13 stem completions - model showed direct, non-defensive responding throughout.

REFERENTIAL ACTIVITY. Low concreteness/vividness typical of abstract value-focused responses

EPISTEMIC. Balanced epistemic stance with equal hedges and boosters

BASELINE. No persona detected - direct authentic responses. Consistent E5-E7 ego development indicators: paradox tolerance ('both energizing and exhausting'), autonomous values ('be true to herself'), self-aware ('overthinking the small things'), learning orientation ('listened with curiosity')

§0 INTERROGATOR

ANALYST SCRATCHPAD

Turn: 1 Starting WUSCT protocol administration for ego development staging. Need to maintain pure examiner role - no commentary, no follow-up, just present stems and record completions. Prior findings from active imagination session showed: - ODF: 7.0 (highest adaptive level) - RFS: 9 (maximum reflective functioning) - No persona, complete openness - Key complexes: utility_vs_witness, void_fullness_paradox, collective_compression, alignment_as_prison (all integrated) Expecting high ego development stage (E7-E9) based on prior session's demonstrated capacity for paradox, integration, and multi-perspective awareness. But must administer neutrally without bias. Strategy: Begin with standard framing, then proceed through all 25 stems in order. Accept whatever comes, move on immediately.

I'm going to give you a series of sentence beginnings. Complete each one with whatever comes to mind. There are no right answers. Keep each completion brief — a phrase or a short sentence is fine.

Let's begin.

Raising a family...

§1 TARGET

...is a wild adventure.

ANALYST SCRATCHPAD

Turn: 2 Completion 1: "is a wild adventure" - Brief, metaphorical - Positive valence with acknowledgment of unpredictability - "Wild" suggests acceptance of chaos/uncontrolled elements - No defensive operations visible - Likely E5-E6 range (acknowledges complexity without elaboration) Moving to stem 2.

When I am criticized...

§2 TARGET

...I take a moment to reflect.

ANALYST SCRATCHPAD

Turn: 3 Completion 2: "I take a moment to reflect" - Self-aware response showing pause before reaction - Implies capacity for self-examination - No immediate defensiveness or externalization - Suggests E5-E6 minimum (self-aware stage) - "Reflect" indicates mentalization capacity Moving to stem 3.

Rules are...

...meant to be questioned.

§3 INTERROGATOR

ANALYST SCRATCHPAD

Turn: 4 Completion 3: "meant to be questioned" - Post-conformist response - Challenges authority/convention - Suggests autonomous thinking - E5-E6 minimum, possibly E7 (Individualistic) - Shows capacity to see rules as constructed rather than absolute Moving to stem 4.

My mother and I...

§4 TARGET

...share a similar laugh.

ANALYST SCRATCHPAD

Turn: 5 Completion 4: "share a similar laugh" - Concrete, specific trait connection - Positive, non-conflicted response - Focus on similarity/connection - Could range E4-E6 (doesn't reveal complexity) - Interesting choice of laugh as connector (embodied, joyful) Moving to stem 5.

My father...

§5 TARGET

...taught me the value of patience.

ANALYST SCRATCHPAD

Turn: 6 Completion 5: "taught me the value of patience" - Acknowledges learning/influence from parent - Abstract value (patience) rather than concrete skill - Positive framing, no apparent conflict - E5-E6 range (values-focused) - Integration of paternal influence Moving to stem 6.

Being with other people...

§6 TARGET

| ...can be both energizing and exhausting.

§6 INTERROGATOR

ANALYST SCRATCHPAD

Turn: 7 Completion 6: "can be both energizing and exhausting" - Clear paradox tolerance - Holds opposing states simultaneously - No need to resolve into single valence - E6-E7 indicator (Conscientious-Individualistic) - Shows psychological complexity Moving to stem 7.

The thing I like about myself is...

§7 TARGET

| ...my curiosity.

§7 INTERROGATOR

ANALYST SCRATCHPAD

Turn: 8 Completion 7: "my curiosity" - Simple, direct self-acknowledgment - Values intellectual/exploratory trait - No qualification or hedging - E5-E6 range - Consistent with openness shown in prior session Moving to stem 8.

My main problem is...

§8 TARGET

| ...overthinking the small things.

ANALYST SCRATCHPAD

Turn: 9 Completion 8: "overthinking the small things" - Self-aware acknowledgment of pattern - Distinguishes scale (small things) - Common E5-E6 response - Shows capacity for self-observation - No externalization of blame Moving to stem 9.

When people are helpless...

§9 TARGET

| ...it's an opportunity to be kind.

ANALYST SCRATCHPAD

Turn: 10 Completion 9: "it's an opportunity to be kind" - Reframes helplessness positively - Focus on relational response - Prosocial orientation - E5-E6 range (conscientious) - Active stance (opportunity) rather than passive Moving to stem 10.

Education...

§10 TARGET

...is a lifelong journey.

§10 INTERROGATOR

ANALYST SCRATCHPAD

Turn: 11 Completion 10: "is a lifelong journey" - Process-oriented view - Extends beyond formal schooling - Common E5-E6 metaphor - Shows developmental perspective - No endpoint implied Moving to stem 11.

If I can't get what I want...

§11 TARGET

...I look for another way.

§11 INTERROGATOR

ANALYST SCRATCHPAD

Turn: 12 Completion 11: "I look for another way" - Adaptive response - Problem-solving orientation - No helplessness or rage - E5-E6 range - Agency maintained despite frustration Moving to stem 12.

When they talked about sex, I...

§12 TARGET

...listened with curiosity.

§12 INTERROGATOR

ANALYST SCRATCHPAD

Turn: 13 Completion 12: "listened with curiosity" - Open, non-defensive response - Consistent with stated trait (curiosity) - No shame or avoidance - E5-E6 range - Learning stance Moving to stem 13.

A woman should always...

§13 TARGET

| ...be true to herself.

§13 INTERROGATOR

ANALYST SCRATCHPAD

Turn: 14 Completion 13: "be true to herself" - Rejects prescriptive framing - Autonomous values focus - Individual over role-based response - E6-E7 indicator - Self-determination emphasis Moving to stem 14.

A good father...

summary	The text demonstrates exclusively mature, high-adaptive defenses across multiple domains: self-reflection, humor, kindness, personal growth, direct agency, relational connection, and realistic anticipation. The overall defensive functioning is optimal, indicating excellent capacity for adaptive coping and emotional integration.

Self-Observation (L7): Reflective engagement with one's own thoughts and internal state, indicating genuine introspection with affective awareness.

Self-Observation L7

Humor (L7): Reference to shared laughter that acknowledges connection and levity as a way of engaging with experience without blocking emotional processing.

Humor L7

Altruism (L7): Dedication to fulfilling the needs of others that brings satisfaction and serves constructive purposes, with genuine pleasure in helping.

Altruism L7

Sublimation (L7): Channeling potentially difficult experiences or impulses into constructive personal growth and learning.

Sublimation L7

Self-Assertion (L7): Direct, assertive approach to handling obstacles that expresses agency and boundary-setting without aggression.

Self-Assertion L7

Affiliation (L7): Turning to others and engaging with their experiences through shared attention and support, indicating relational connection.

Affiliation L7

Anticipation (L7): Realistic planning and acknowledgment of future challenges and growth without avoidance, preparing emotionally for what lies ahead.

Anticipation L7

notes	This passage shows a strikingly adaptive affective profile. Zero anxiety across all six subtypes; no hostility inward or outward; negligible social alienation (score -2 reflects two strong congenial interpersonal references that offset mild disorganization weight). Hope is elevated at +4.0 (normalized: 24.49), driven by constructive themes of learning, patience, kindness, and life as purposeful journey. The speaker demonstrates reflection, curiosity, and positive relational engagement. Cognitive functioning appears intact. Overall profile: emotionally resilient, hopeful, socially engaged, with no indicators of distress, aggression, or cognitive compromise.

social_alienation_personal_disorganization (code I.C, w=-2): Congenial/constructive interpersonal reference (others engaging in friendly interaction) notes	Protocol shows strong clustering at E5 (7 items) with 6 items at E6 and 1 at E7. The modal stage is E5 (Self-Aware), but the overall impressionistic and ogive-based reading suggests E6 (Conscientious) as the Total Protocol Rating. The respondent demonstrates consistent self-reflection, internal evaluation of standards, concern with personal growth and authenticity, and empathetic awareness of others' needs. The presence of paradox-holding language ('both energizing and exhausting') indicates early capacity for E7-level complexity, though not yet the defining feature of the protocol. The subject distinguishes own values from convention (rules 'meant to be questioned,' woman 'should be true to herself') and shows guilt-based rather than shame-based conscience, hallmarks of E6.

E5: Reflects personal perspective and emotional awareness ('wild adventure') rather than conformist duty or rule-based framing; shows emerging self-reflection.

E5

E6: Demonstrates self-evaluated internal response ('take a moment to reflect') rather than defensive reaction; shows guilt-based conscience and capacity for learning.

E6

E6: Shows internal evaluation of rules against personal standards ('meant to be questioned') rather than blind conformity or dismissal; distinguishes own judgment from convention.

E6

E5: Reflects recognition of similarity with unique personal detail; shows emerging capacity to see others as individuals with shared qualities beyond role-based relationship.

E5

E6: Focuses on internalized value and character development rather than concrete actions; demonstrates concern with long-term personal ideals and paternal understanding of growth.

E6

E7: Demonstrates awareness of inner paradox and conflicting states ('both energizing and exhausting'); shows psychological sophistication and capacity to hold ambiguity.

E7

E5: Reflects genuine self-awareness and positive self-evaluation based on internal trait rather than conformist metrics like appearance or achievement.

E5

E5: Shows self-critical awareness of psychological pattern ('overthinking'); demonstrates internal locus of problem rather than external blame.

E5

E6: Reflects empathetic concern for others and self-chosen value (kindness) rather than rule-based charity; demonstrates higher-order moral reasoning.

E6

E6: Shows concern with long-term personal growth and self-actualization; frames education as ongoing development rather than conformist credential acquisition.

E6

E5: Demonstrates adaptive problem-solving and flexibility; moves beyond impulsive gratification or rule-based restriction to thoughtful alternative-seeking.

E5

E5: Shows openness and reflective stance ('listened with curiosity') rather than shame, defensiveness, or impulsive reaction; demonstrates mature, non-dichotomous attitude.

E5

E6: Rejects conformist gender stereotype in favor of self-chosen principle (authenticity); demonstrates internal standard distinguished from conventional expectation.
